Dr. Schultz,

In accordance with the required process, I had communicated my decision to the HR office the day after I received your response. The official communication to you will come from that office. If you have not received it by now, I will inquire if it is forthcoming shortly.

Dean Badiru,

It has now been 19 days since I responded to the notification of proposed suspension, 9 days longer than I was originally given for my full response. We have been involved in this process now for 6 months. In 12 days you will exceed the total time allowed me for my response. Have you come to a decision yet and, if not, when I can I expect your decision?

Respectfully,

Kenneth L. Schultz
